

One Week at Six Bedroom Home BIG SKY, MONTANA (May- October 2012)

MONTANA THERAPY

Enjoy a vacation in southwestern Montana at a 5-6 bedroom log home in Big Sky. This three level home includes three master suites (two with a king bed, one with a queen), one queen bedroom, a bunk room that sleeps six, and a second family room that converts to a sixth bedroom. Ping pong, foosball, flat screen TV's with DVD players, two stone fireplaces, wrap-around deck with great views of the mountains, hot tub, fully equipped kitchen, and maid/linen service during your stay.

Fly to Bozeman and take an easy one-hour drive up the canyon for your stay. Enjoy seeing wildlife, crystal blue alpine lakes, and fields of wildflowers as you hike the many trails in the Spanish Peaks and Gallatin Mountain ranges. Explore and fish the five nearby blue-ribbon trout streams and rivers (Gallatin, Madison, Big Hole, Yellowstone, and Missouri). The West Entrance to Yellowstone National Park is just 48 miles away. Other nearby activities include rafting, horseback riding, dining, biking, golf, scenic chair lift, the solace Spa, ropes course/zip line, and Big Sky Resort Kids Club Activities.

One week stay available May through October 2012.
No pets or smoking.

